Here's the new Nurser that has revolutionized baby feeding

Dramatically reduces spitting up, gas pains and colic

Unlike ordinary bottles, Plastex Nurser needs no air inside to make formula flow. Pliable
"inner bottle" contracts as baby feeds, as in natural breast feeding.

"Natural-Action" nipple cannot collapse.
Your baby takes in more formula, less swallowed air to cause spitting up, gas pains and colic. Baby feeds and sleeps better, gains weight fast.

The "inner bottle" is presterilized and disposable—No bottles to scrub or sterilize. No sterilizing equipment needed. Used in hospital and homes in over 10 million feedings. Get

REV. CHODACKI
Rev. Chodacki Named
Alton State Chaplain

The Rev. Henry S. Chodacki has been assigned to the Alton State Hospital as Catholic Chaplain. Dr. Abraham Simon, superintendent, announced this week.

Father "Henry" as he wishes his friends to call him, will minister to patients and perform church services at the hospital, Roy, Chodacki's home, Chicago. His residence in Alton while serving the hospital will be the Oblate Fathers Novitiate in north Alton.

Prior to arriving at Alton Father Chodacki was chaplain at the VA Hospital in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father Chodacki is replacing Father Sanderfoot, who is on leave from Alton State Hospital, for special schooling in a federal mental hospital in Washington, D.C. for one year.

The five control changes eliminated from the list for further study on motion of Bartosik included: 21st and Edison, four-way stop to two-way stop on 21st; 21st and State, four-way stop to two-way stop on 21st street; 21st and Lee, four-way stop to two-way stop on Lee; Lincoln and Hall, two-way stop on Hall to yield on Hall; Kate and Sheridan, two-way school stop on Hall, yield on Hall, and Kate and Sheridan, two-way school stop on Kate, changed to yield on Kate.

The ordinance provides that the street department is to erect signs in accordance with the new controls.

In other council action a single bid for furnishing the city with two new police motorcycles was referred to the Police committee at the suggestion of Second Ward Alderman Sam Whitmer, chairman of the Police committee. The bid received from the Harley-Davidson Motorcycle Co. of Alton priced the two new motorcycles at $1816 each with $375 trade-in on each of three old motorcycles.

The council also authorized use of city funds to rock and chip Woodlawn avenue because of what was termed faulty work done on the project by a private contractor. The council also authorized City Attorney Richard Allen to institute litigation against the contractor as a result of the alleged improper work.

A brief argument developed over a proposed sidewalk construction submitted by Alderman G. H. Sternberg of the Seventh Ward, chairman of the Street committee. The work proposed by Sternberg amounted to $7101.

CRATES OF FURNITURE arriving at the new Southern Illinois University Southwestern Campus are happily received at the newly-completed classrooms building by Jack Drda (left), senior buyer, and William V. Connell, university purchasing agent. The classrooms building and library building will be the first permanent structures to be used on the new Southwestern Campus. Classes start Sept. 23 while construction continues on three other buildings.

$7200 in Budget

He pointed out that $7200 was set up in the new city budget for sidewalk construction, but that $7244 previously had been spent. Therefore, Sternberg said, it will be necessary to finance the proposed work from additional funds. The proposal brought protests from several citizens, including Whitmer, who said he would approve only the $7200 worth of work provided in the budget "and not a penny more."

An amendment to add still another project, construction of a sidewalk on St. Louis avenue from Walnut to Maple, was approved by a nine to five vote, increasing again the amount submitted by Sternberg.

At this point Bartosik said he believed the city should reimburse a resident whom he identified as Mr. Petrolia for building his own sidewalk in the vicinity of 22nd and Monroe streets. Several aldermen argued this would be discriminatory and would set a precedent, since many residents have built their own walks, either privately or through special assessments.

The proposal was put as a motion by Bartosik, but was defeated eight to six. Sternberg's program for the sidewalk construction work was approved.

Reber and several other Quad-Cityans made the trip during the summer. He was introduced by Ralph Morris, program chairman.

Members of the club's board of directors met yesterday to go over possibilities for future fund-raising campaigns. The directors are to make recommendations at the Sept. 28 club assembly. At that time, reports of committee work during the past year also will be presented.

William Hodebecke, club president, was in charge of Tuesday's meeting attended by 52 members and guests.

Civil Service Office To be Open Saturdays

As an added service to the public, the Civil Service Commission will keep its St. Louis job information center open a half day on Saturdays beginning Sept. 11. In announcing the new service, J. H. Sonntag, director of the St. Louis Region, said this change will make it more convenient for the public, particularly those who are employed, to get information about civil service examinations. The Saturday service at the office is part of the commission's nationwide plan. Sonntag emphasized that the new hours do not mean there is any pressing need for increased federal hiring at this time.

The information center is located in Room 1712 Federal building, 1520 Market street, St. Louis. The new Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. During these hours information about civil service examinations may also be obtained by calling Main 2-4283. When asked about current opportunities, Sonntag said recruiting is most active for tabulating machine operators, supervisors and project planners, card punch operators and for administrative positions filled by college caliber applicants through the Federal Service Entrance Examination.

At about 1:15 a.m. Paul Summers, proprietor, reported to police that someone had tried to pry open the rear basement door of the establishment. Graham was held for investigation.

Miss Oros

Iantic City auditorium in a stunning white swim suit and two hours later will know for the first time how she rates initially in the contest.

Has Rooting Section

The lovely brunette, whose charm, poise and considerable talent has attracted nation-wide attention in press and television coverage, has her own high partisan rooting section already on hand in Atlantic City.

Tomorrow and Saturday, the local delegation will be increased by more than 25 persons as other groups prepare to depart by plane and automobile for the east coast resort town, where each September beauty and talent are displayed from all corners of the nation.

Mrs. Paul Oros joined her daughter in Atlantic City on Tuesday and Kathy's father and younger sister, Renee, will leave by plane early tomorrow. Mr. Oros told a Press-Record reporter last night, "I still can't believe anything like this could happen in our family." He confessed to being nervous about the whole unexpected turn-of-events in the Oros household and added, "I'll probably be more nervous than Kathy."

Today's Report

In a report this morning by Paul Morris, Miss Illinois' personal manager in Atlantic City, the state Jaycee vice-president said, "Our girl is full of high spirits and is tirelessly rehearsing to keep her talent at the peak of perfection."

He continued, "I am trying to be objective in viewing the pageant and reporting back, but I must say that in last night's evening gown appearance, Kathy looked so outstanding it's hard to describe."

Morris added, "There were several tremendously talented contestants in the first preliminary round and, surprisingly, some rather poor ones." He commented on the fine performance by last night's winner Miss Indiana, who sang a medley of songs from "The Sound of Music," and the beautiful blonde Mississippi entry.

He said "other outstanding talented performers" included Miss Florida, an opera singer and Miss Louisiana who sang light opera. He added, "I understand Kathy's specific group is heavy on talent."

During informal talks with members of the press and radio corps covering the pageant, Bob Tavel of Quincy, Miss Illinois' pageant director and a television executive has learned that the local candidate is considered a favorite and her personality has won her many plaudits.

Boardwalk Parade

In describing the illuminated boardwalk parade along the sea front Tuesday night, Morris said the route was lined with a solid mass of spectators. He added that the local group was most fortunate in securing front row seats outside convention hall.

Arnold Palmer, the renowned golfer, was the parade marshal. Pageant judges, chosen from the field of art, entertainment and news media, include many notables, Morris relates. In the distinguished group are movie queen, Joan Crawford; John Brownlee, a world famous opera singer; John Canady, New York Times art critic; Alexander Cohen, Broadway producer of "Hamlet" and other top productions.

Stan Ladley, 1964 national Jaycee president; Bill Doll, president of a national public relations firm; Albert Proseny, Metro-Goldwyn-Meyer's chief of casting and talent; Onna White, Broadway musical choreographer; Jean Dalrymple, New York City Center, public relations head; and Mrs. William Hasbrook, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Television emcee Bert Parks, is serving as pageant master-of-ceremonies.

Morris added, "I hate to say this, but if our Kathy should not win, she will arrive at St. Louis airport at 8:27 p.m. Sunday." He quickly continued, "of course we are all hoping and praying that instead she will win and daughter. The local contingent will be joined Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Crews and Mrs. Mike Day.

Local Residents Arriving
Local arrivals in Atlantic City yesterday included James Buntin, Granite City Jaycee president and Ray Lake, who arranged Miss Illinois' farewell banquet Aug. 29, at the Tri-Mor Bowl, attended by Gov. Otto Kerner.

Miss Mary Blackburn and Miss Mary Luther, both retired Granite City high school teachers, are planning to leave by plane tomorrow. The former has long been an enthusiastic booster of Miss Oros' talents since tutoring her in speech and drama during Kathy's high school years. Also departing Friday is Kathy's aunt, Mrs. Verna Lengyel, with Mrs. Ann Lengyel and Mrs. Michael Lombardi.

Expected to add a great deal of exuberant hometown support to the local candidate is a group of young people leaving today by car. Several in the group were members of the same GCHS speech course with Miss Illinois and includes two former Miss Granite City contestants, Miss Karen Shotton, a candidate this year, and Miss Sheryl Glozik, a 1964 contestant.

Others in the delegation are Bill Lierman, Kenneth Rogey, Karen Darner, Bernard Helman, Ricky Copeland, David Keilow and Mr. and Mrs. Newell Dar-violence against plant property or personnel.

Negotiation

On Monday night and early Tuesday morning, from 100 to 200 persons were massed at the company's main gate at 19th street and Railroad Tracks at various times, according to allegations of company officials.

One of two fire bombs thrown against the company's car wash house exploded but did only minor damage. The incident occurred about 3 a.m. Tuesday. Other incidents involved the overturning of two automobiles, one at the plant and one at a supervisory employee's home.

First Meeting in Weeks
The negotiation session is the first in several weeks. It was called by Conciliator Bernard O'Keefe of the Mediation Service, who has been attending all meetings between the company and the union.

Company officials said prior to the meeting that the company had not yet received an answer to a new proposal made several weeks ago. That proposal was a complete rewrite of the company's offer and raised the wage offer from a 9.5-cent-per-hour increase to 10 cents, they said.

Biggest stumbling block in the negotiations reportedly is craft realignment, which is sought by the company. It is one of three issues reopened for negotiation under a clause of the contract, signed Aug. 24, 1964. The other two items were wages and grievance procedure, both of them union issues.

Arrests at Plant
Six men arrested Tuesday at the starch plant in connection with incidents occurring there had been released on their own recognizance today pending hearings.

Hearings dates on these charges have not been set by Magistrate Hiscott.

Those arrested and the charges were Virgil Singler, 38, of 2438 Illinois avenue, Donald Kershaw, 35, Edwardsville, and Joseph Anderson, 43, of 2604 West 20th street, all arrested on charges of criminal damage and intimidation; Clarence Whitford, 41, of 2810 West 22nd street, charged with criminal damage, intimidation and reckless conduct; Duston Rodgers, 36, Rural Route One, intimidation; and John Martinke, 38, of 2104 Harrison street, Madison, reckless conduct.

Variety of Injuries Treated at Hospital

After he swallowed an unknown quantity of gasoline yesterday, David Duffer, five, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duffer, 200 McCambridge avenue, Madison, was given initial treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He later was transferred to Cardinal Glennon Hospital, but recovered before reaching the St. Louis hospital and was returned home.

Admitted to the local hospital with a fractured right arm was Olen Smith, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Smith, Rural Route One, Box 1173, who sustained the injury playing football.

Others treated yesterday included Jim Campbell, 21, of 2 Mercer drive, who had 25 sutures taken in cuts on his forehead, left knee on elbow after he walked into a glass door; Joseph Freeman, eight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Freeman, 2008 Alton avenue, Madison, seven sutures to his right cheek after being scratched by a girl classmate; Robert E. Sturdivant, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sturdivant, 2507 Angela drive, wire removed from his right lower leg, where it had lodged after being ejected by a lawnmower; and Robert Green, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green, 2709 Rath drive, first and second-degree burns on his right hand caused by lighter fluid.

Fundamentals Occupy Trojan Gridiron Team

According to Head Football Coach Glen Pickering of Madison High School, the Trojans are not high school, the Trojans are not doing as much contact work as usual, but are working primarily on fundamentals in preparation for their opening game here against Edwardsville Friday, Sept. 17.

Pickering says, "We are also working more on conditioning than we ever have. If nothing else, we will be in shape."

"While we have some depth in the backfield, our line is thin." The quarter-back spot is still a toss-up between juniors Steve Geroff and Steve Shipoff. Pickering rates Geroff as the better passer, but says that Shipoff handles the ball and calls plays well.

Power Runner
Pickering describes senior full-back Alton Rendell as a good power runner who will be used to pick up short yardage.

The coach said juniors Ron Burt and Sam Jones are speed backs who will be utilized for quick-pitch plays.

"Senior wingbacks right half but will probably go both ways in the Trojans' wing" of this season. It is expected that (possibly) Bernard Phillips and John Daloney, who tips the scales at 240, will be used primarily on offense. Senior back defense.

Center will be manned by Arthur or Shipoff. The two gridirers are rated about even in ability to be our punter.

Blaylock, a veteran of 30 years of gymnastic activity, was a featured performer for a period of 12 years, during which time he maintained an extensive schedule of performances at fairs, homecomings, bonifests and private clubs throughout Illinois and Missouri.

In addition to professional gymnastics under the auspices of the Grover-Larose and Chicago theatrical agencies, Blaylock has instructed gymnastics at both the Southside and Northside YMCA's in the 1940 St. Louis District Golden Gloves championships (midget) and his long-time membership on the old East St. Louis Gladiators wrestling team.

Blaylock is also a breeder of birds and a grower of evergreens.

Two Granite Cityans, Ron Homer and Jack Atkinson, took top honors at the St. Louis Scuba Diving Association's fifth annual Labor Day dive during which spear-fishing contests were held. Score tallies showed this week. The dive took place Sunday at Bull Shoals Lake in Pontiac, Mo.

Homer, 26, 5000 Puntion road, took first place for the largest fish caught - eight pounds and two ounces. Atkinson, 1903 Lynn Avenue, came in second with a seven-and-a-half pound catch.

The two local divers also nabbed the top spot for having shot the most fish as a team - 14.

As a sidelight attraction, the Bubblemasters Scuba Diving club of Granite City had a separate contest with the Maskers of Alton to determine which club could catch the largest fish.

The Bubblemasters won due to the above-mentioned catch made by Homer, who will get to keep the trophy until the contest is held again next year.

As a result of having lost the contest, the Masketers will treat the Bubblemasters to a fish fry at a yet-to-be-determined date.

Seminar for Lawyers on New State Legislation

Attorneys from central and southern Illinois counties have been invited to attend sessions of the fifth bi-annual seminar for lawyers sponsored by Chicago Title and Trust Co.

Held in two sections to accommodate the number of attorneys who requested tickets, it is designed to provide lawyers with information concerning the numerous acts affecting real estate, probate and trust law enacted at the 1965 session of the Illinois General Assembly. More bills were introduced and enacted into law in this session than ever before in the history of the assembly.

Sessions will be held at August 14 in Belleville Tuesday, Sept. 14, and at the Leland Hotel in Springfield Wednesday, Sept. 15. The same material will be presented each day at 2 p.m.

Of particular interest will be a discussion of Senate Bill 673, which makes many far-reaching changes in the rules governing administration of real and personal property. The bill abolishes the distinction between these two classes of property for certain purposes in the administration of decedent's estates.

Sewers for State Park to be Pushed by Nameoki Twp.

The Nameoki township board of auditors will seek development of sewers and sewage disposal for the State Park area of the township. Supervisor Harry Briggs reported at a board meeting Tuesday night.

A delegation of State Park residents attending the meeting expressed an interest in obtaining a system, and Briggs said he is seeking application forms to obtain a federal grant for a system there.

The State Park Plate area of the township is the only one to support the recent bond issue referendum for general sewer system. The overall proposal was defeated by nearly a three-to-one vote.

Briggs said he would offer township assistance to other areas of the township wanting sewers if they ask for it. Members of the Wilshire Manor Civic & Improvement Association said they would aid in establishing sewers in that subdivision if its residents want them.

During the meeting the board passed a $15,000 tax, anticipation warrant for the road and bridge fund and approved bills and minutes.

Proclamation Urges 'Fair Share' Gifts to United Fund

The months of September and October have been designated as United Fund and Community Chest Month by official proclamation by Gov. Otto Kerner, according to John R. Hundley, general chairman of the Tri-Cities Area United Fund drive for 1966 funds.

Signed in Springfield, the proclamation urges each responsible citizen to "give his fair share so that the burden may be lightened on his fellows and the goal reached."

Gov. Kerner also accepted the title of honorary chairman of the fund drive for state employees, and as his first act solicited the Fair Share Gift of Lt. Gov. Samuel Shapiro, who in return received the Fair Share pledge of the governor.

David W. Morgan, executive director of the Granite City Housing Authority, is chairman of the Tri-Cities Area United Fund, which will cover state employees in this area.

"ACE SETS THE PACE" — QUALITY AT LOWER PRICES

'Strikebreaker' Law Voted 9-5; Called Illegal

TEAL KILL SLATED

A total of 9007 hunters have applied for and will receive teal hunting permits, the Illinois Department of Conservation has announced.

July 31 was the deadline for applications. The permits will be processed and mailed to hunters starting on Wednesday, Sept. 1.

A special hunting season for blue-winged and green-winged teal only, has been set for Saturday, Sept. 18, through Sunday, Sept. 26. Hunters must have a special teal permit in their possession in addition to a valid Illinois hunting license and a 1965 migratory waterfowl or duck stamp to hunt teal. The daily bag limit is four teal and possession limit is eight teal after opening day. On the first day of the season both limits are the same—four teal.

MEAT PROTECTED

The use of benzate of soda in meat and poultry and in meat and poultry products is no longer permitted, Robert M. Schneider, director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture, said last week.

A law prohibiting the use of benzate of soda as a preservative, in meats and poultry was passed by the 74th General Assembly and signed into law by Gov. Otto Kerner.

Previous to enactment of this legislation, the use of benzate of soda was limited to one-tenth of one per cent by volume and the merchant offering products so treated was required to advise the fact to the purchaser at the point and time of purchase.

Under provisions of the new law now in effect, no use of benzate of soda is permitted in meat and meat products.

TIMOTHY CROP UP

The 1965 timothy seed crop in Illinois is estimated at 1,200,000 pounds, six per cent above last year, according to the Illinois Co-operative Crop Reporting Service.

Average harvested for seed declined in 1965 over this year but higher yields were reported. The increase is still 15 per cent below the 1959-61 average.

Estimated yield per acre for 1965, at 110 pounds of clean seed, compares with 125 pounds per acre in 1964. The average date on which harvest began was July 26, the same as last year. The 1965 production of timothy seed is forecast at 32,533,000 pounds throughout the United States. This is six per cent more than last year's revised estimate of 30,798,000 pounds, but is still one per cent below the 1959-63 average.

COAL MINED

Coal production from 64 Illinois mines totaled 6,238,186 tons in July. L. Leon Ruff, director of the Illinois Department of Mines and Minerals, has reported.

This tonnage is an increase over the 3,203,197 tons mined during July 1964, and a decrease from the 4,770,208 tons mined in June 1965.

Sixteen mines in Fulton County reported the highest July production—436,688 tons—by 877 men working an average of 15 shifts. This is a decrease of 238,221 tons from the 754,409 tons taken out of seven mines in the county the previous month and 51,571 tons more than the July 1964 production from seven mines.

The department reported a total of 7989 mines working during July. Production came from 36 strip mines and 28 underground operations.

One fatality and 52 non-fatal accidents were reported for July.

Teenager Deaths

Mostly of Violent Nature

Violent death, other by accident, homicide or suicide, are counted for two out of every three teenager deaths in the state last year, according to Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health.

Of the total 745 deaths in the 15 to 19 age group, 580 were attributable to five leading causes: accident, 347; cancer, 65; homicide, 57; pneumonia, 38; and suicide, 23. Of these five causes, only cancer represents a classification that is generally considered not "preventable."

"In other words," Dr. Yoder said, "seven out of every 10 of these deaths could have been avoided by one means or another. Further, it is safe to venture that one-half of all deaths among teenagers can be prevented by the teenager himself, either through his own control or through his direct influence on others."

In the accidents that claimed more than half of the young lives, 233 were motor vehicle fatalities. In most instances, the victim could have prevented his own death either by more careful driving or by his own influence on the driver of the car.

Museum Art on Display

The parallel development of art, the history of Illinois and the influence each exerted upon the other can be seen in the exhibit, "Arts and Traditions of Old Illinois," that opened this month at the Illinois State Museum in Springfield.

The exhibit, first of its kind at the museum, is the result of months of searching in books, private homes, historical societies' archives and other museums for paintings, prints, sculpture, furniture and crafts made before 1900 within the state's boundaries.

The Illinois State Museum is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays, including Saturday.

A packed gallery at Tuesday night's city council meeting, much of it made up of Union Square company strikers and their wives, booed and cheered as council members debated the long-dormant anti-strikebreaker ordinance and eventually passed the bill by a 9-5 vote.

Final passage of the ordinance, intended to prohibit Granite City employers from employing persons to do the work of labor union members who are on strike, came after an unsuccessful effort by 7th Ward Alderman Gene H. Sternberg to amend the ordinance with restrictions on striking groups.

The audience booed lustily at Sternberg's introduction of the amendment, and cheered loudly when 1st Ward Alderman Charles Moerlein termed the language of the amendment "the same as a yellow-dog contract."

While the anti-strikebreaker ordinance outlaws the hiring by employers of persons who would replace striking union members in their jobs for the duration of a strike, Sternberg's amendment proposed also to limit to four the number of pickets and require an elected official of the union to be with the pickets while on picket duty.

The amendment also would have prohibited the presence on a picket line of any person not a member of the union and would have required identification of all pickets by a placard, armband or other marking.

Duty Roster

It also would have required the posting of a roster of pickets and their duties, which would have prevented striking union members from accepting any form of employment without first submitting a written resignation to his regular employer.

Moerlein attacked Sternberg's amendment as having "the language that has been outlawed by Congress for the past 25 years." Sternberg replied that he was willing to debate this issue with Moerlein at any time.

Edmund Hanisch of the 2nd Ward told the council, "I wonder who wrote that for him. I don't have to have the Manufacturers' Association write my stuff for me. I rode around this (Union Square) plant today and saw 20 30-year-old men walking around with only five or six pickets there."

"This is a waste of money. The idea of calling out all of our policemen to watch a handful of pickets makes us look like Reds."

This brought a sharp retort from Mayor Patten, who earlier in the day had called out the city's entire police force when and from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

1964 Adoptions

Adoptions in the state for the fiscal year ended June 30 totaled 791, according to Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health.

This is the total number of children for whom birth records were prepared but does not include adoptions of children born in another state (192) or adoptions where the adopting parent did not want a new certificate of birth (48). It does not include foreign-born children adopted in Illinois and 1103 Illinois-born children adopted in other states.

Of the 791 adoptions, almost half went into homes where there were other children and 65 of this group went into families where there were already six or more children. Again boys were more popular than girls.

While about 87% were under 10 years of age when the adoption took place, 1211 were over age 10 and 81 of this group were age 20 years and over.

Sixty-four adoptions were made by single, unmarried persons.

Gov. Otto Kerner said last week that Illinois leads the nation in the provision of foster-parent housing for elderly citizens.

Based upon figures published by the Public Housing Administration as of Dec. 31, a total of 4428 units of low-rent housing for the elderly were in operation, under construction or being planned for Illinois communities. New York was second with 9152 and New Jersey was third with 8868.

Of all the federally assisted low-rent housing in Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, 49% has been constructed or is to be constructed in Illinois.

"I am particularly pleased that local housing authorities throughout our state have been so responsive in the vigorous pursuit of their obligation to increase the inventory of decent standard housing," Gov. Kerner said. "Much of the success of this program must be credited to a revitalized State Housing Board."

About 23% of all government-assisted housing developed in Illinois since 1953 has been developed since January 1961, Gov. Kerner said.

large numbers of people massed [not the way things are now," around the plant.

"Are you making a motion, Mr. 3rd Ward alderman [City Attorney Bartosiak, that we withdraw our opinion on Sternberg's amendment?"

"Are you asking for it?" Bart Allen earlier had said he had tossed a riot there at noon today but none. While there are no precedents there were still 20 policemen cases in the supreme court there. If there is a riot, say, you would have to call them out. But they laws governing municipal-ties fail to provide for the passage of any such legislation. As an amendment to an invalid ordinance, the proposed change also would be invalid, he said.

Holds Bill Illegal

Allen said that, in his opinion, the ordinance was illegal, and that if it ever came to a test in the appellate court, the court would rule that Granite City exceeded its authority in passing such a bill.

Walter Nomm of the 5th Ward challenged Allen by saying there is as much chance for the law to be declared legal as there is for it to be held otherwise. Nomm said five or six other Illinois cities have such a law, but Allen noted that in no instance has the law ever been tested in court.

Nomm said Allen has less legal experience than a St. Louis labor attorney.

On a vote on Sternberg's amendment, those voting against it were Nomm, Sam Whittier, Bartosiak, Boyd, Dallas Moerlein, Parnley, Poulos and Green, while those voting "no" were Sternberg, Rutledge, Basarich, Thompson and Fry.

Chamber Studies Progress on Rt. 151, Nameoki Road

Intense interest in progress on widening of Nameoki road and construction of Route 151, the riverfront highway, was voiced at a monthly dinner Tuesday evening by Tri-City Chamber of Commerce directors, who authorized continued efforts by Transportation and Highway Committee.

An ordinance which was under consideration by the Granite City Council was discussed, with the board deciding to take a stand on the proposal.

Also reviewed was the Madison County airport authority proposal, which will be studied further. It was announced that the Chamber has assisted financially in arranging for Granite City Jaycees' participation in the Miss America pageant. Kathy Jones of Granite City, Miss Illinois, is to be a guest at the October Chamber meeting.

Progress is being made in efforts to obtain foreign doctors for service in the St. Elizabeth hospital emergency room, it was reported. The Chamber was among groups instrumental in passage of an enabling law by the state legislature.

Other topics included Education Committee activities, among which will be a school board candidate forum; plans for raising of the former downtown post office; participation in state and national Chamber meetings, including the Illinois convention Sept. 30-Oct. 1 at Chicago; agricultural, membership, religious and financial reports.

Thomas Robinson, Brunswick 173-Mor Bowl, was approved as a Chamber member.

President Carl E. Mathias presided at the meeting at the Rose Bowl, after which many of the Chamber directors attended the city council session in Granite City.

Unstable shoulders will be degraded to receive a stone base course and an asphalt and stone surface course.

City Grader to be Leased

Mayor Partney authorized the loan of a city motor grader and an operator to the state to assist in this work.

Section Four — Fehling and Johnson roads to a point just north of the entry to Tri-Mor Bowl. This section will receive practically the same treatment as section three, plus considerable pavement hole repair.

This improvement will allow limited right hand passing at congestion points caused by those waiting to make left turns into the shopping center.

Plans New Paving

Section Five—From a point just north of the Tri-Mor Bowl Pavement holes will be repaired in this section. The maintenance department will be required to pass bituminous concrete over the worst part of this stretch of road between Tri-Mor Bowl and the Pontoon road intersection.

Announcement was made by state highway officials last week that funds would not be available for carrying out the Nameoki road improvement project this year, although eight months have been spent in an elaborate effort to clear right-of-way requirements so that the work could be done this year.

The project from Madison avenue to the northern city limits was included in the highway department's construction program for this year and several past years.

Madison Sells Part of Industrial Park for $16,000

The Madison city council approved sale of 3.66 acres of its industrial park to Illinois Power Co. at a sole bid price of $16,000 during a meeting Tuesday night. The utility agreed to pay all title charges and expenses. It bought the property, located at the northeast part of the industrial tract, for a substitution to provide more power to surrounding industries.

Mayor Stephen Maeras said the city made a profit of $3752 on the land, but noted that a profit was not the purpose of the sale.

During the meeting the mayor reported on developments in its dumping problems, including possible purchase of an eight-inch well pump to be used to extinguish any spontaneous combustion fires at its city dump.

The city has been prohibited by the state from burning trash at the dump. He said the pump could develop 100 gallons of water per minute.

He also discussed obtaining 1000 feet of hose which could be used to pump water from Horseshoe Lake. The city started a land fill operation at the dump Tuesday when a state inspector visited the area and found no burning.

Sufficient land fill space will be available for some time, the mayor said, but he suggested seeking prices for use of a public dump.

The mayor also noted that the garbage dump at the city was arrested by the state for improperly preparing garbage before feeding it to pigs, and he has gone out of business.

Proposed Zoning
In a report on a proposed zoning ordinance, Mayor Maeras said a meeting has been arranged between the mayors of Venice and Madison, their city attorneys and Theodore Miksell, executive director of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

The mayor said the city may get two-thirds of the cost of the zoning study from the federal government.

The council adopted a motion to give 30 days' notice to owners of property in the 800 and 1000 blocks of Reynolds streets which has been condemned to meet specifications. The city will move to have the buildings razed if there is no compliance.

Third Ward Alderman Raymond Kosciak complained that transients are using the vacant houses and are molesting women and children in the area. "I am tired of taking the blame," he said.

Non-Agent Station
The council agreed to cooperate with Granite City in objecting to requests by the GM&O and New York Central Railroads that the Illinois Commerce Commission designate the Granite City railroad depot as a non-agent station.

Mayor Maeras reported that plans and specifications for the Cambridge avenue improvement are in the hands of the state highway division in Springfield and should be approved soon so the work can get underway.

He said the state determined that a small triangular tract adjacent to a tavern will not be required as a right-of-way. He added that the state deleted plans for a traffic signal for the intersection at Edwardsville road, though the council members disagreed.

The council transferred $30,000 from the Chain of Rocks Bridge fund to the special revenue fund to be used for general city purposes.

Mayor Maeras urged all aldermen to attend the annual Illinois Municipal League convention to be held Oct. 2-5.

FHA to Finance Family Housing Plan at SIU

A housing project for moderate-income college families, first of its kind ever financed by the Federal Housing Administration, will be built at Southern Illinois University.

The $4 million project for at least 350 families is the first approved under a special section of the Urban Renewal Act, according to John Rendleman, SIU vice-president for business affairs.

He said FHA's action on the SIU request has been "closely followed" by other universities with family housing plans of their own.

Action came after FHA changed a section of the urban renewal program, enabling colleges to get FHA financing to build facilities for their students and faculty.

One reason for going to FHA, according to Rendleman, was to take advantage of a new three percent interest rate approved for that agency.

Unlike other campus construction projects the university will not provide plans and specifications to be followed by contractors.

Prospective bidders will submit their own package designs—including roads, utilities and landscaping at a Nov. 16 bid opening here. The winner will be the one who, in the eyes of university architects, "gives the school the most for its $4 million," according to Paul Isbell, director of business affairs.

Completion is expected by the fall term opening in 1967.

Five-Year Gain Of 25% in Ill. Industrial Goods

Illinois industry reported a 1963 value added by manufacture total of $14.5 billion, a gain of 25% over the value added for 1958, according to a preliminary report of the 1963 Census of Manufactures, just issued by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

"Value added by manufacture is approximately the value of products shipped minus the cost of materials used to manufacture the products.

Machinery (except electrical) and bank director, passed away Sept. 2.

led the list of the state's industries in 1963 with a value added by manufacture of $2.2 billion, an increase of almost 27% over 1958, last previous year of the Census of Manufactures.

Next ranking industry in 1963 was food and kindred products with a value added of $2 billion, a gain of more than 23% over 1958.

Electrical machinery was in third place with a value added of $1.8 billion, over 22% higher than in 1958. Fabricated metal products followed with value added of $1.4 billion, an increase of slightly less than 14% for the five-year period.

Of the Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas lying wholly within Illinois, Chicago—consisting of Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will Counties led by far with a value added total of $10.2 billion, an increase of more than 23% over 1958.

The Chicago-Northwestern Indiana SMSA, consisting of the Gary-Hammond-East Chicago Ind. areas in addition to the Chicago area, reported a total value added figure of $11.8 billion.

The portion of the St. Louis SMSA lying within Illinois showed value added of $694 million of the SMSA total of $3.25 billion. The Illinois portion consists of Madison and St. Clair counties.

The St. Louis SMSA showed a gain of more than 34% in the five-year period, while the increase of its Illinois area amounted to 24.6%.

Industrial employees in the state numbered 1,210,597 in 1963 as compared with 1,188,576 in 1958. The payroll in 1963 was $7.36 billion, up 21% from 1958.

Allen Dean, 17, Dies Of Injuries From Fall

Allen Marvin Dean, 17, son of Granite City School Engineer and Mrs. Marvin Dean of Camp Graham road, Route Two, Collinsville, died at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis. He had suffered internal injuries in a fall July 17 while on an overnight camping trip with his Explorer post, Post 36, at State Park, Mo., and was transferred to Barnes July 21 from St. Mary's of the Ozark Hospital, Ironton, Mo.

He underwent four operations, which were performed in an effort to control infection caused by the fall. The injury had occurred when he fell on rocks while diving.

A senior at Collinsville high school, he had been a member of the football team for three years and was a tackle. He was a member of the Collinsville Presbyterian Church and had served as a deacon in the Madison Presbyterian Church. Born in St. Louis, he was a high school resident of the Collinsville area.

Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. R. (Vernie) Ruck, Peoria, and Mrs. R. A. (Marian) Graham, Collinsville, and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

MORE ABOUT $737,000 Levied

collection was $1,903, including $1,354 education, 2485 cents building, 251 cents retirement, 231 cents working cash fund, 1573 cents bonds and interest and two cents transportation.

In other financial transactions, resolutions were passed to transfer $74,500 from the educational fund and $8490 from the bonds and interest fund to the working cash fund, and to transfer $3500 from the educational fund for creation of a revolving fund.

Interest From Idle Funds

In an audit report from C. J. Schorser & Co., certified public accountants, Venice school officials were commended for good business practices in investing the funds, which accrued an interest of $2812 in the last fiscal year.

Board members voted to continue to invest funds in 30-day government bonds, and authorized investments of $250,000 from the education fund, $250,000 from the building fund, and $50,000 in working cash funds.

The auditing report also showed an increase in educational costs of $63 per pupil in the past year. Amounts listed were $639 cost per pupil for 1963-64 and $753 for 1964-65.

Prior to hiring several new faculty members and two school secretaries, Board Member Harold Subert and Board Secretary Roy Musick questioned the soundness of hiring personnel with relatives already employed in the school system. Both suggested a policy change be considered in future hirings. It was also stressed that new employees should reside, or should intend to reside, in the Venice school district.

New Instructors

Among the new teachers whose contracts were approved were Mrs. Carolyn J. Smevett, fourth grade teacher, Gary Craig English teacher, and Mrs. Annetta Olenkoff, physical education instructor. All were hired at a $588 monthly salary.

Three substitute teachers employed for a 90-day period at a salary of $25 per day included Miss Helen Wheeler, kindergarten, Mrs. Helen P. Smith, first grade, and Mrs. Lela Barker, first grade.

Mrs. Delores Bosworth was hired as secretary to Roger Davis, Venice grade school principal, at a monthly salary of $240 for a ten-month year and Mrs. Sandra Campbell as secretary to Venice high school Principal Lewis Schin, at the same figure.

Demolition to be Completed

Board Attorney Harry E. Hartman urged the school officials to make immediate arrangements to complete the demolition of the Lincoln high school building, which was intentionally destroyed by fire earlier this week.

After being informed that a room-sized excavation and large steel beams remain exposed in the ruins, he advised the board to seek the services of a wrecking firm to complete the job before someone gets hurt.

Leo Daykin, building committee chairman, was asked to contact firms capable of finishing the demolition work and report costs to the individual board by phone to avoid delaying the project until the next board session.

Demolishing the building by fire was decided on by the board when estimates showed it would cost upwards of $4000 to have the 80-year-old structure dismantled. Although it was unused last year, maintenance costs for the two-story brick and frame building totaled $11,000.

Attorney Hartman also told the board that he hopes for an early date to be scheduled for a tax objection hearing involving the Venice school district and Union Electric Co. for the tax years of 1956-57.

2 Men Charged With Burglary In Greene County

A Granite Cityan and a Glen Carbon man are being held in the Greene county jail at Carleton on a charge of burglary at a Green county farm home Monday evening.

In custody and being held for $10,000 bail are Hymon Gray, 26, of 1324 Carr street, and Joseph Hubbard, 26, of Glen Carbon. Hubbard also was charged with armed robbery by Greene county Sheriff David McColligan.

Sheff McColligan said the men were taken into custody Monday night by State Trooper Harold Walker of White Hall, who stopped their car for a routine inspection. Inside he found items identified as having been taken early that day in a burglary at the farm home of Leo Kohnen Jr.

Among the loot was $80 cash, a pair of binoculars, a camera, a portable radio, child's toy bank, a transistor radio, a wrist watch, two sport shirts and a flashlight.

More Health Careers Described

(Third of a series)

A shortage of trained personnel in various health fields is discussed in this series. Some of the fields are described below:

Occupational therapists contribute to a patient's recovery or adjustment by improving or restoring emotional and physical capacities. They also help to sustain social and psychological functions of human activity.

Education: Requirements for the Registered Occupational Therapist degree are high school graduation and 4½ to five years of college training in any of 31 approved schools throughout the country. Advanced standing and master's degrees require up to two years of additional training. At the University of Illinois, tuition and fees for state residents are $135 per semester (first six semesters on the Urbana campus) plus $305 for nonresidents (final semesters on Chicago campus).

Positions and salaries: Starting salaries for staff therapists are about $3400 yearly. Top administrative positions, such as directors of services, medical consultants and curriculum directors, may reach salaries ranging up to $14,000 annually.

Need: Nationally, there is a current shortage of 14,000 occupational therapists. This number is expected to jump to 20,000 in 1966.

Medical Record Librarians

The medical record librarian is responsible for seeing that there is a complete and accurate record of each hospital patient. This includes medical history, physical examination, progress notes, nurse's notes and all other medical records. She also checks the record for completeness and proper use of medical terminology.

The record begins at the time the patient enters the hospital and does not end until he has been discharged. Using a recognized classification system for diseases and operations, the medical record librarian indexes the material for ready reference and research.

It is also the responsibility of this profession to prepare daily, monthly and special statistical reports which are used by hospital administrators in directing hospital operations and by medical staff committees in reviewing and evaluating the professional work of the medical staff of the hospital.

Education: Medical Record Technicians require high school graduation plus one year of internship in any of the 20 hospitals in the country. Medical Record Librarians require a bachelor's degree, plus one year of hospital internship.

Positions and salaries: Positions are available for technicians and assistant record librarians as well as chief medical record librarians who supervise, organize and manage a medical record department and its personnel. Average salary for a beginning librarian in most Illinois hospitals is around $2500 yearly.

Need: Less than half of the hospitals in Illinois employ the services of registered medical record librarians.

Pharmacy: Pharmacy is concerned with the selection, preservation, standardization and distribution of drugs and medicines. Opportunities include the dispensing of drugs in a community or hospital, pharmacy, research and development, and the production of drugs in industry.

Education: The qualifications for dispensing of drugs is at least a Bachelor of Science Degree in Pharmacy plus passing the state board examination. A master's degree requires one year more of study and a Ph.D. involves at least three years of study beyond the basic degree. At the University of Illinois—the only pharmacy school in the state—for resident students is $300 per semester.

Positions and salaries: Positions range from manager of community pharmacy to research pharmacist to a university pharmacist. Desirable positions are available as research, production pharmacists, medical sales representatives, and teachers of pharmacy. Starting wages for a community pharmacist in the Chicago area is around $10,000 yearly. Salaries are somewhat lower in other parts of the state.

Need: Because of the wide variety of positions at various levels, there is a constant need for pharmacists in the pharmaceutical field. It is impossible to specify the overall need with a single figure. At virtually all levels, the need for outposts is the current supply.

This list is far from complete. It excludes the professions of doctor of medicine, dentistry and nursing, and the allied health professions of optometry, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy. It also includes the 150 health occupations which provide the vast supporting services to make the medical profession function. Information on any of the health professions or occupations may be obtained by writing the Illinois State Board of Health, 400 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60610.

While a severe shortage exists in the allied health professions, a growing number of students are preparing to take their place among them. What do they expect of their studies? Their career futures? Themselves?

A student's view of the field is given in the next installment.

Liberalize 'Partial Retirement'

(This is the third of a series of articles by Ralph Brasler, director of the security district manager in East St. Louis, telling what the social security amendments of 1965 mean to local families.)

Many people who continue to work after they become entitled to monthly social security benefits will benefit from a liberalization of the retirement test. First, the amount—the amount of earnings as beneficiary can have in any year and still receive all benefits. In 1965, the year was increased from $1200 to $1500.

This change also means that even if a person's earnings exceed $1500 during the year, he may still receive all his benefits for any month in which wages are $125 or less.

Lower Benefits Withheld

Second, a smaller amount of benefits will be withheld when the beneficiary works and earns over $1500 in a year.

Previously, $1 in benefits was withheld for every $2 of earnings between $1200 and $1700 in a year. On earnings above $1700, $1 in benefits was withheld for every $1 of earnings.

After 1965, $1 in benefits will be withheld for every $2 of earnings between $1500 and $2700. Benefits will be withheld on a dollar-for-dollar basis on earnings above $2700.

These changes will be effective for taxable years ending after 1963.

Levy Set By Road Commissioner

Under an amendment to the highway code, made by the General Assembly in 1963, the levy was misunderstood concerning whether the highway commissioner or the elected board of supervisors had the authority to set the levy. House Bill 102, passed by the legislature in 1963, and approved by the governor, cleared up this question and states that the highway commissioner shall determine levy and certify that the tax levied by the taxpayers' Federation of Illinois roads.

At least 30 days prior to the first Tuesday in April each year, the highway commissioner in each road district in township organization counties "shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a tentative budget and appropriation ordinance for the fiscal year. He shall file the same with the board of supervisors. Then, the public have the opportunity to examine the budget and appropriation ordinance.

The clerk has the duty of making the tentative budget and appropriation ordinance convenient for public inspection for at least 30 days prior to final action thereon. At least 30 days prior to the first Tuesday in April each year, the highway commissioner in each road district in township organization counties "shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a tentative budget and appropriation ordinance for the fiscal year. He shall file the same with the board of supervisors. Then, the public have the opportunity to examine the budget and appropriation ordinance.

Benefits for Unemployment Now Higher

Major amendments to the Illinois Unemployment Compensation Act raising weekly benefit amounts for qualified claimants and making other changes, went into effect Sunday.

The changes in the law were made by the legislature after recommendations were received from the governor's Unemployment Compensation Advisory Board consisting of representatives of industry, labor and the general public.

Durward Book, manager of the unemployment compensation office at Granite City, said that higher weekly benefits will be paid to some claimants by reason of the raising of the ceilings on weekly benefit amounts.

New Top Benefits
The new top weekly benefits are:

For claimants without dependents, $42 (formerly $38).

For claimants with a non-working spouse and no dependent children, $50 (formerly $43).

For claimants with 1 dependent child, $55 (formerly $47).

For claimants with 2 dependent children, $60 (formerly $51).

For claimants with 4 dependent children, $65 (formerly $55).

For claimants with 4 or more dependent children, $70 (formerly $59).

Book pointed out that, to qualify for the higher weekly benefit amounts, claimants must have been paid larger amounts of wages during the specified prior one year period. Thus, under the old law, an unemployed worker without dependents was eligible to receive the maximum benefit amount of $38 per week only if he earned at least $878 during the high quarter in his base year period. The same man with similar earnings today will still be entitled to receive only $38 a week, Book said.

21 Paddlers Win Red Cross 50-Mile Swim Certificates

Twenty-one youngsters received their Red Cross 50-mile swim certificates Saturday morning in a presentation ceremony held at Paddlers Swim Club, 2020 Johnson road.

The occasion marked the conclusion of a successful venture, which saw the largest group to complete the Red Cross endurance and physical fitness program certified at one time.

Starting on June 7, the participants were required to swim a minimum of 440 yards at each stage of the record distance. Several of the older swimmers completed their 50 mile swim some time ago, it is learned, while the younger participants only recently made their final 440. All are members of Paddlers competitive swim team.

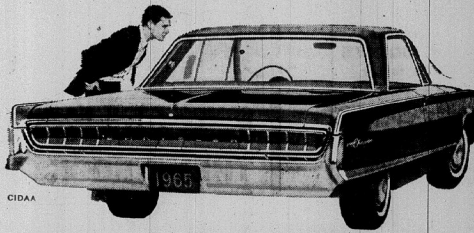

Embossed certificates, awarded by the Tri-City Chapter, American Red Cross, were presented by Randy Thompson, a sophomore at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, who last year was a member of the SIU freshmen swim team. A Red Cross water safety instructor, Thompson served as monitor for the program.

Those completing the 50-mile swim, including Linda and Bob Valtokki, Ann Bickhaus, Gayle Thompson, Bill Beatty, Scott Lotus, Mary Ellen Dunn, Susan Lybarger, Cyndi Zahn, Mark Hatcher, Peter Sabin, John Exenden, Jayne Dulgeroff, Elic Ann Mills, Dan Noeth, Jan Kayle and Craig Tarpoff, Jane Gabriel, Angela Gasparovic and Stan Hoffman.

FIGHTING FIRE THEY SET. Venice firemen used water to keep Labor Day blaze from spreading. The school district wanted to rid itself of unused and ancient Lincoln high school (right) but still uses the comparatively new Lincoln grade school (left).

ROARING INFERNO occupied Venice and Brooklyn firemen most of Labor Day as unused Lincoln high school was razed intentionally with a fire set by firemen. Madison firemen remained on a standby alert to guard the Madison and Venice area in the event of other fire calls. This view from South Fourth street shows the two-story structure as it neared the end of its nearly 80 years of existence.

Hessian Fly Control

Hessian fly populations in wheat remain low, being about the same as last year on the basis of the state average, according to a recent report by the Illinois Natural History Survey. In 1964 the state average was three puparia (fly seed stage) per 100 tillers, while this year it is two. Both years are below the years from 1958 to 1962, when the state average ranged between 9 and 14 puparia per 100 tillers. In recent years more and more farmers planting wheat before the fly-free date have been using resistant varieties that have helped to keep fly populations low. This year the southwestern section, south of Madison county, has the highest population, averaging four puparia per 100 tillers. St. Clair county had the highest average in the state, with 17 puparia per 100 tillers. None was found in Madison county.

Farmers can reduce Hessian fly populations and lessen damage by following these practices:

Destroy all volunteer wheat by mid-September. This wheat provides a place for a fall buildup of Hessian flies. It can benefit the fly as much as early seeding.

Seed on or after the recommended seeding date when using susceptible varieties. These dates depend on the latitude. Fly emergence occurs first in the northern counties and progresses southward from mid-September to mid-October. The recommended seeding date for Madison county is Oct. 7 to 9.

When seeding early, use resistant varieties, such as Knox 62, Monon, Ottawa, Gage, or Reed. Select the one best suited to your area. Consult the University of Illinois Agronomy Department list of recommended varieties. Use either certified or pure seed (not contaminated with other varieties). Any of these varieties may be seeded early without damage by Hessian fly or buildup of populations.

Use a systemic insecticide, such as phorate (Thimet) or Dacthal.

ton, when seeding susceptible varieties early. Place it in the drill row with a grass-seeder attachment at fall seeding. Use 10 pounds of 10% granules per acre. Follow label precautions when handling and applying this material, as it is toxic to warm-blooded animals, including man.

Even when fly populations are low, it is still advisable to follow control recommendations to prevent buildup of and damage by the fall generation, which would lead to an even larger buildup of the spring generation and more severe damage.

Wheat as Substitute
Wheat may be substituted for corn as one-third of the corn in dairy grain mixtures if the selling price of one pound of good-quality wheat is less than the price of one pound of shelled corn. For dairy cattle, wheat has about the same feeding value as corn and can be substituted for about one-third of it in mixtures on a pound-for-pound basis.

In an Illinois study comparing wheat and corn for growing-finishing swine, average daily gains were 1.70 pounds for hogs on corn and 1.75 pounds for those getting wheat. Feed required per pound of gain was 3.29 pounds for the corn and 3.25 pounds for wheat. Studies with beef and sheep show comparable results.

In most cases livestock will accept and use ground wheat best when it is mixed about equally with shelled corn or ground oats. Bred sows are one exception. They will do well on a limited ration containing only wheat.

Farmer Controls Ponds
The other day we heard about a fisherman who told a farmer he had to let him fish in his pond because it had been stocked with fish from the state Department of Conservation, that such ponds are open to the public at all times. This is entirely wrong—a pond owner using state fish does not have to permit everybody to fish.

The application, blank and agreement the pond owner signs when he applies for fish from the Department of Conservation states that "A reasonable amount of public fishing must be allowed by the owner. This does not mean the area is opened to the public but may be fished by permission."

phate and fertilizers on land being prepared for wheat seeding or to make plans to fertilize this fall or next spring a head of planting soil-consuming crops and other crops.

Farmers having soil tested should be careful to take samples properly, according to directions available at the farm adviser's office.

The annual meeting of the Southern Illinois Breeding Association will be held Sept. 18 at the association headquarters at Breese, starting at 10 a.m. All dairymen are invited.

ANOTHER "JAYCEE" COMMUNITY PROJECT

10 Boys Provided 'Y' Memberships From Mahrt Fund

Ten new YMCA activity memberships were awarded to 10 local boys Wednesday, marking the first anniversary of the Paul A. Mahrt Memorial Endowment Fund.

The fund is the result of the foresight and concern of the late Paul A. Mahrt, a Granite City resident who was employed by Granite City Steel Co. prior to retirement. Throughout his life he was especially concerned with opportunities for constructive activities for boys.

It was his wish that opportunities for youth be made possible on a continuing basis after his death, and the "Y" endowment fund was created by contributions from his estate and by those of friends made at the time of his death.

Since that time, several personal contributions have been made, adding to the steady growth of the endowment. It is estimated each year's winners, work, and the interest accrued from the fund provides for memberships to boys and girls in the community.

Youths receiving the awards were recommended by Mrs. Gladys Bass of Coordinated Youth Services, David Morgan of the Granite City Housing Authority and Steve Ortiz of the Mexican Honorary Commission.

Southern Illinois University's industrial education program includes training in manual arts therapy.

Water Utility Expands Scholarship Program

The East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. announced today that the American Water Works Foundation scholarship program has been expanded from four to eight scholarship awards each year.

J. G. Carns Jr., vice-president and manager of the local utility, said four scholarships will be awarded each year to children of local water firm, and four to children of residents served by the local utility and other American system companies.

The awards will range from $250 to $1000 a year, with each amount to depend on tuition charged by the college selected by the winner and his financial need. Winners may attend the college of their choice.

The scholarship program will be administered by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J. Prominent educators will determine each year's winners, and the interest accrued from the fund provides for memberships to boys and girls in the community.

The investor-owned water system, the nation's largest, comprises 84 water utilities serving more than 4,000,000 residents of 180 communities in 18 states, including this community.

Frontier Theme For Opening of SIU-SW Campus

A frontier setting will symbolize the start of the first classes on Southern Illinois University's Southwest campus when New Student Week activities get underway Sept. 19.

The Sunday program will begin at 1:30 p.m. with a reception and a concert by the East Allen-Wood River community high school band under the direction of Chester Hughes. Welcome speeches will be given by Dan Corbett, chairman of the orientation committee, and Ralph Ruffner, vice-president of student and area services.

Robert MacVicar, vice-president of academic affairs and the keynote speaker, will talk about the "Spirit of New Horizons."

Orientation Drama

An orientation drama entitled "Try to Remember" will describe the rigors and rituals of registration and student life. Directed by Robert Hawkins, associate professor in SIU's Fine Arts Division, the skit will show types of problems encountered by a student in a new university as well as old problems related to any campus.

Parents, who will be given a special tour of the campus grounds and new classrooms, will have an opportunity to attend special sessions and visit with SIU professors. While parents are touring the campus, new students will be entertained by a "Know How Jambo" presented by the University Center Board and Program Council.

New students will spend the following two days in orientation sessions before beginning classes on Sept. 23.

SIU Housing, Classroom Structures Unfinished

Two new residence and classroom facilities will be opened to serviceable, Brothers said. Southern Illinois University students at Carbondale Sept. 22 out at the Commons, a combined shape them with workmen for a facility, began Sept. 1. The first meal will be served the evening of Sept. 18 to residents arriving for New Student Week. Housing lecture hall forming one authority said the meal will be wing of a classroom building on time, even if the dining areas aren't finished.

They are University Park, a 17-story residence tower used for use until winter. When Main overtime push is at Neely cupped, Wright Hall is not scheduled to start moving in Brothers said. Boomer Hall is slightly behind it, but will be occupied by women, and a Commons it opens, total University Park building, Trueblood Hall, which occupancy will be 1842.

William Volk, SIU construction supervisor, said plasterers, painters, floor tilers, and electricians are the chief categories on overtime.

"Temporary Inconveniences" Despite the stepped-up pace, interior work won't be finished by the start of school two weeks from now, according to V. H. Boyer, housing coordinator. Most rooms will be habitable but students who have signed contracts have been advised to expect "temporary inconveniences."

Among them will be a delay in air conditioning for the tower building, housing machine classrooms, and commons building. Some rooms may be curtailment when occupants move in.

The first and second floors of the tower will be unfinished but elevators will be in operation.

Earns High Honors

Phyllis Ann Kawula of Granite City was one of 31 students at Eastern Illinois University to receive high honors during the summer quarter at the Charleston campus. She had a grade-point average between 3.75 and a perfect 4.0.

First Floor Finished

First floor facilities in the classroom building are expected to be completed. These include four 290-seat auditoriums and three conference-type classrooms seating 80 each. Unfinished will be three more 80-seat rooms on the second level.

A major change in the design of a central audio-visual control room has set back construction of that part of the building.

Next to be opened, in late December, will be a $5.9 million Communications building, followed by the other wing of the classroom group, next March.

The latter will house all departments in the School of Business, and offices of the government department, graduate school, and dean of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Booming Business at Canal-- Another Tonnage Record Set

Business is booming at the Chain of Rocks canal. Another month—and another record was broken in tonnage passing through the canal and locks, according to the U. S. Army St. Louis Engineer District.

July was an all-time record month with a tonnage figure of 3,572,395, but August topped that total with 3,875,265 tons.

Grain accounted for 1,563,935 tons of freight through the canal last month, with 1,501,435 tons going downstream and 62,500 tons upstream.

Other commercial tonnage in August included petroleum products, 488,220 tons up and 274,488 down; coal, 638,500 tons up, and none down; cement, sand and gravel, 600 tons up and 33,500 down; sulphur, 73,425 tons up and none down; miscellaneous commodities, 39,650 tons up and 66,440 down; iron and steel products, 18,100 tons up and 136,920 down; chemicals, 124,300 tons up and 38,300 down.

Of the total 3,875,265 tons, 1,826,125 went upstream and 2,049,140 went downstream.

Total tonnage for the first eight months of the year now amounts to 25,399,352, compared to 21,127,388 for the same period last year.

The August traffic through the canal was made up of 841 towboats, seven passenger boats, 1386 barges, 284 private recreational boats, 9 government towboats, 49 government barges and 17 patrol boats.

Tonnage during August was handled by 5515 vessels requiring 934 lockages. In August 1964 there were 914 lockages.

In the eight-month period, 33,917 vessels required 3838 lockages, while in the same period of 1964 34,185 vessels were handled with 6317 lockages.

Payments on Sewage Plant Are Authorized

Payments totaling $120,988 for work on Granite City's new sewage treatment plant were authorized by the city council in a regular session Tuesday night.

Largest item approved—totaling $102,634—was authorized for payment to the general contractor for general construction work.

On motion of Alderman Charles Moerlen of the special pollution committee, the council authorized an additional payment of $15,704 to the Illinois Power Co. for installation of mains to the plant. Moerlen said the amount proved to be additional cost above the original estimates.

Moerlen also obtained council approval of an additional $619 for a smooth floor finish rather than a rough finish provided by original cost figures.

Paul Rutledge, 4th Ward alderman and chairman of the finance committee, obtained approval of payment of $2041 as balance due on $11,391 worth of engineering fees.

Historic New Harmony

JOHN W. ALLEN—
Southern Illinois University

It would not be true in this case to say that "it Happened in Southern Illinois." It missed doing so, however, by a very narrow margin, the width of the Wabash River. That being the case the people of neighboring Indiana should forgive the slight trespass. If a river crossing is made and something is said about their historic little town of New Harmony.

After all New Harmony no longer is the sole possession of Indiana. On Aug. 21 of this year (1965) it was designated a "Registered National Historic Landmark." A new bronze plaque tells us so. This places it on the list of those localities where incidents occurred that profoundly influenced the course of our nation's history.

Over the years and on varying intervals repeated visits have been made there. Not one of these visits was unproductive.

Success or Failure?

New Harmony provides some sharp contrasts and apparent incongruities. Somewhat that it marks the location of a great American success that ended in failure. This in turn was followed by an effort that was termed a failure only to end as one of the nation's great successes. This may sound strange but that is how it ended.

It all began far from New Harmony when George Rapp, soon to be known as Father Rapp, a vigorous religious dissenter living in Wurtemberg, Germany, led a group of fellow dissenters to establish a common property settlement in Pennsylvania. There they would be free from the persecutions they knew in their homeland. Harmonie, in Pennsylvania, prospered and joined were added. Soon they sought to establish another community.

Three representatives led by Father Rapp went looking for a suitable place. After careful looking they chose in May 1814, 7000 acres of woodland lying alongside the Wabash in present day Posey county, Ind. It proved to be a very wise choice. Within a month a hundred workmen were on the way to the new location on the Wabash, there to begin building their planned village. They cleared ground for farmland, built houses for the families, warehouses, stores, barns and workshops. They planted or-

Leukemia Guild Notes Increase In Case Load

The Leukemia Guild, which serves downstate Illinois and Eastern Missouri, reports that its patient case load for August showed a significant increase over August 1964.

Tom Howard, guild president, reported that in August 1964 the guild provided services to 20 children and 46 adults, a total of 66 patients. In August 1965, the guild served 51 adults and 43 children, for a total of 94. This was three patients more than in July 1965. It added five patients and lost two through death.

"Our increase in case load," Howard said, "happily, does not reflect a similar increase in the incidence of leukemia. It means that more families of patients are turning to us for aid."

The Leukemia Guild provides leukemia victims with medicines as prescribed by doctors without cost. It also makes available free transportation to and from hospitals and clinics, and supplies blood through its "walking blood bank." Offices of the Leukemia Guild are at 4434 West Pine Blvd., St. Louis.

Models Needed at 'Y' For Adult Art Class

Models are needed for the YCA adult art class which will begin Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 14, from 1 to 3 p.m.

While the class will not be primarily portraiture, it will be included for those artists interested in this type of work. Other instruction will range from water drawing for beginners to "Pop" and "Op" art for advanced artists.

Models will be accepted on a "first call—first serve" basis and the only fee paid will be for portraits finished by the artists.

Even though there will be learner's products, a number of artists have already registered whose work is at the professional level. It was reported. Some of the portrait artists will be just beginning.

The work is done in pencil, charcoal and pastel and is completed in one sitting—from one hour to one and a half hours with breaks for coffee. The atmosphere is informal.

All interested people for either the class or those wishing to be models may call the "Y," TR 6-2200, and ask for Mrs. Lee Plaff, program director, or the instructor, Mrs. Bonnie Fuller. Registration may be made by phone.

Cost of the course is $11 for "Y" members and $14 for non-members, or they may pay for each lesson at $1.25 for members or $1.50 for non-members.

Food Stamp Plan Now in Madison County

Madison county has been included in an extension of the food-stamp program for low-income families. It was announced this week in Texas by President Johnson. Other Illinois counties named were St. Clair, Williamson and Saline. The program permits low-income families to buy food coupons which can be used to purchase goods in local food stores worth far more than the price of the stamps.

New Residence Among Madison Building Permits

Construction valued at more than $15,000 was authorized in building permits issued in the city of Madison during August, a monthly report showed today.

Included was a $13,000 residence to be built at 1125 Cambridge avenue by Donald McBride.

New siding and a carport are planned by Louis Mohr, 1904 Fourth street, who estimates the total cost at $1000. Also completed of art at the Illinois State Museum, paid tribute to the local museum for having articles so Roy Stancie will have window sashes replaced at a building at 400 State street at an expenditure of $800, while Frank Agard's series of carved pieces, war pieces, a $200 frame addition to the dwelling at 1028 Seventh street, Mexican and Civil War years.

Authorization was given for the Nativity of Virgin Mary part of regulation army equipment Eastern Orthodox Church, which in the Mexican war and has constructed a new church adjacent to the former church structure on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ewing at 414 Ewing.

Gifts to County Museum Almost Like Daily Christmas

Christmas is almost a daily affair at the Madison County Historical Museum where gifts continue to add to the collection of the museum's remembrances.

According to A. Edson Smith, museum superintendent, and Mrs. Louise Ahrens, assistant superintendent, research is made on the historical background of each article presented. Special effort is made to secure and record information on the donor's knowledge of the exact personal use of the article contributed.

One recent gift included a carved piece of wood, a Mexican and Civil War years. The museum, paid tribute to the local museum for having articles so Roy Stancie will have window sashes replaced at a building at 400 State street at an expenditure of $800, while Frank Agard's series of carved pieces, war pieces, a $200 frame addition to the dwelling at 1028 Seventh street, Mexican and Civil War years.

Captain William B. Wright, Capt. Wright, a resident of Upper Alton, was born in 1828 and died in 1911; he served in the Mexican and Civil Wars. Following the war he held several local and county offices.

Other possessions of Capt. Wright date from Civil War years, including elaborate bone and wood carvings done while he was imprisoned in the Liberty Prison for 22 months. A cooper by trade, Wright plied some tedious craftsmanship in carvings he made from bone. Examples at the museum include a signet-like lady's ring and a small replica of a leather book cover, both of which were sent to his wife, Helen English Wright, whom he married in 1847.

Returning to Alton following his release, Wright continued to ply his woodworking skill in the cooper's trade. Other carved items at the museum from Wright include a gavel, spoon, and small peddler bowl.

The Indian Office of The Experiment announced this week the anticipated arrival of about 200 delegates from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Australia, Europe and the Middle East including 55 delegates from 14 states.

The three-week conference will begin in New Delhi on Sept. 13 with the official opening termed the "Week of Work," which is obligatory for all delegates. The latter include experimenters who have lived and traveled abroad on regular experiment programs, friends of the experiment who have participated as parents, host family members, community committee members and sponsors of experiment activities.

The theme of the week, "The Culture of India," will be developed around Indian Art, Indian Religions, Indian Social and family life, and Indian Architecture and History. On Sept. 16, an all-day trip to Agra and the Taj Mahal is planned for all delegates. The farewell dinner on Sunday, Sept. 19, will be an "international evening" with all countries invited to present typical entertainment or war native costumes.

END OF SUMMER has not yet officially arrived but is symbolized by this picture, taken this week as the 1955 Labor Day celebration came to a close at Wilson Park. It was the final holiday of the summer recreation season, and its conclusion marked the start of the fall-end-of-the-year period in which there are school books, frosty weather and indoor pastimes—but no roller-coaster rides.

Price Urges State Membership in Lewis, Clark Group

Congressman Alvin Price, Dem., East St. Louis, appearing before the House Interior Subcommittee on National Parks and Recreation urged favorable action of his bill, H.R. 6515, providing for statutory membership for the state of Illinois on the Lewis and Clark Trail Commission, it was announced today.

The measure also directs the commission to five appropriate recognition to the Wood River, Ill., area for its role in the history of the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

"The need for this legislation," Price stated, "became readily apparent at the commission's organizational meeting last January." During the meeting, Price indicated, "considerable discussion was directed to the fact that the Expedition's headquarters and training camp were located on the Illinois side of the Mississippi River at the mouth of the Wood River during the winter of 1803 prior to the start of the mission on May 1, 1804."

The commission recognizing the necessity of Illinois representation on the group, Price said, decided to extend an invitation to the governor of Illinois to participate in subsequent meetings. "This action, however," does not alter the situation that Illinois does not hold actual statutory membership on the commission, Price told the subcommittee. "Needless to say," he continued, "this could limit the voice of the governor in commission deliberations since a non-member participant does not have the power to vote."

Commenting further in support of the bill, Price pointed out that he had received letters from numerous individuals and organizations, especially in the Wood River vicinity, expressing their deep interest in the legislation.

"There is tremendous pride in the fact that the Wood River community was the site of the take-off point of the Expedition, and it is fitting that a State park, the Lewis and Clark Memorial Park, is located there."

Price also noted that the Department of Interior had submitted a favorable report on his bill.

Jaycee "Bike Rodeo" Set For Saturday at Bellemore

The second annual "Bike Rodeo" for youngsters, between the ages of six and 13 years will be cosponsored by the Granite City Jaycees and the Bellemore Village Association at 10 a.m. Saturday.

The event, which last year attracted more than 450 participants, is to be conducted on the Bellemore Village shopping center parking area, adjacent to the Tri-City Grocery store.

One of the entrants will receive the grand prize, a portable television set while 12 prizes will be awarded in three categories of competition. They include: best decorated bike; silliest looking bike; and most skillful navigation of an obstacle course.

Boys and girls will compete against each other in two age divisions—midgets, six through nine years, and juniors, ten through 13 years. First and second prizes will be presented in each category, plus the grand award. Winner of the latter prize must also be present.

Entry blanks may be obtained at any Bellemore Village Association store prior to 9 a.m. Saturday, when all entries must be turned in at the official registration area in the shopping center. Additional entry blanks may be secured from the Jaycees at the time of registration.

At Barnes, Jaycee project chairman, reported today that free soda, ice cream and potato chips will be on hand for those children who participate.

Young Kelley to be Sentenced Sept 21 After Guilty Plea

Paul David Kelley, 19, Mitchell, pleaded guilty to the murder of an Arlington Country Club maintenance man after his trial was called Tuesday in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

Circuit Judge Joseph J. Barrett Sept. 21 as the date of a pre-sentence hearing. Kelley was the last of three defendants to be brought to trial in the fatal shooting last Feb. 4 of Aaron Leggett, 36, at his quarters at the golf course. Jurors brought guilty verdicts against the other two.

Leggett was shot nine times, apparently for attention he had paid to the wife of Ernest Lloyd Nichols, 48, Mitchell. Nichols was convicted of planning the murder and was sentenced to 100 to 150 years in prison.

Nichols and Kelley, who was a senior at Granite City high school at the time of the murder, are brothers-in-law. Nichols' son, Charles Ernest Nichols, 21, also was connected with the murder shooting and was sentenced to 75 to 125 years in prison.

Kelley was found competent to stand trial last July by two psychiatrists, one of whom had diagnosed the young killer as an extremely dangerous person. He has been held in the Madison county jail in Edwardsville since his arrest in February and was involved in one jail-break plot after the other Nichols was convicted in July. He also attempted to commit suicide last April by slashing his wrist with a broken light bulb. He was treated by jailers and isolated from potential weapons.

Hearings for 16 Youths in Venice Gang Raid

Sixteen Brooklyn youths, most of them 15 and 16 years old, will be given hearings on disorderly conduct charges in the Granite City magistrate's court Sept. 17, it was reported today.

Twelve of the youths are free on bond and four are being held in the Venice city jail pending the hearings. Another youth, 15 years old, was released to a relative with the understanding he would be returned to his home in Detroit.

The 17 boys were arrested shortly after 9 p.m. Labor Day after they invaded Lee Park in Venice by truck in an effort to cause a gang fight with a group of North Venice boys. The fight between several North Venice youths and several from Brooklyn broke up in the evening. Park guards reported that the Brooklyn boys threatened to return help in Brooklyn and return. Brooklyn police notified Venice authorities that a large group of boys had congregated on a street corner and reported they were enroute to Venice "to clean up the place."

Venice police were waiting for the boys when they arrived at Lee Park and arrested them before a fight started. The North Venice gang did not return.
